Houston's First is a lively church full of activity and opportunities for people to grow closer to Jesus.

Genuine.

We are a group of Christ-followers who are honest about our imperfections and want others to know the forgiveness we've received in Jesus.

MESSAGING

Generous

We have so much to be grateful for.

Gratitude can be hard to come by. At Houston's First, generosity is not only about what we give financially—it's about what we give of our whole lives. We are a community profoundly grateful for the abundant blessings we've received, and our joy is found in giving back. Join us as we extend a helping hand and share our resources and lives to make an impact on those around us. Together, we're giving ourselves away so that our community can know the love we've experienced through Jesus.

MESSAGING

Vibrant

Life is full, and so are our hearts.

Life is full. And sometimes it is hard to fill with the things that matter most. Step into the lively heartbeat of Houston's First, where each day is a celebration of life in Jesus. Our church is a vibrant mixture of activities, growth, and opportunities to draw you closer to God. From dynamic worship experiences to engaging community events, there's a rhythm of joy and vitality that resonates through our church community. Join us as we embrace the fullness of life and explore the possibilities of spiritual growth together.

MESSAGING

Relational

Connected hearts, shared journeys.

It can be hard to stay connected. People are busier and lonelier than ever. But relationships are the heartbeat of our community. We intentionally nurture close connections within our expansive church family, ensuring everyone feels known, valued, and loved. Beyond the walls of the church, we journey together, supporting one another in whatever life brings. At our four campuses, we welcome everyone and the diversity that God has created in our church.

MESSAGING

Attentive

Every person, every day.

We never know when life's struggles will come. At Houston's First, we're not just a Sunday church. We're the Church every day of the week. We pay attention to the needs and joys of those around us, striving to be a source of support and care. Whether in moments of triumph or challenge, our commitment to being attentive is reflected in our ministries every day. We are intent on making an impact one person at a time because Jesus has changed everything for us.

MESSAGING

Genuine

Real stories, real grace.

It can be hard to find “real” these days. We feel pressure to maintain appearances. Authenticity is at the core of who we are at Houston’s First. As Jesus followers, we openly acknowledge our imperfections and the transformative power of God’s grace in our lives. We invite you to join a community that embraces honesty, shares honest stories of redemption, and extends the same forgiveness we’ve received from Jesus. In Him we find strength, connection, and a shared journey. We are genuinely loved and forever changed.

Audience

INTERNAL AUDIENCE

Young families

Houston's First is filled with young families with kids. These families are often pulled in many directions between the demands of professional life and kids' activities. Many of these parents are financially stable young professionals. They are grappling with the challenges of raising their children through technological distractions and pressures they face while pursuing their professional growth and relational needs. These parents need encouragement, resources, and community as they prioritize spiritual growth for their entire family.

Established families

There is a foundation of older adults who have deep relationships with Jesus and a long history at Houston's First. These individuals have built a strong community with one another and care deeply about the well-being of the church. Many of these individuals are experiencing more margin in their lives than they had in previous years. These people have acquired significant skills, resources, and wisdom and have as much or more to offer than ever before. This group needs a compelling vision for this chapter of their lives, opportunities to speak into the lives of younger individuals and families, and a place to foster community with one another.

EXTERNAL AUDIENCE

Disconnected families

The growing communities in and around Houston are full of families with kids. Though Houston is considered a “reached city” by statistical standards, there are still many who do not have a spiritual community. Many of these parents are very busy between their professional and family lives and spend their weekends at their kid’s extracurricular activities, socializing, or traveling. As successful as many of these parents appear, they may experience anxiety, isolation, and exhaustion from the demands of life.

These parents need a place to experience an authentic community. They need a meaningful vision for their personal and family life and need to be connected to other parents who can relate. More than anything, they need Jesus, who offers a solution for all of it!

The background features a series of overlapping, curved, organic shapes in various shades of blue and white, creating a sense of movement and depth. The word "Identity" is centered in a white, sans-serif font.

Identity

THE LOGO:

Campuswide Logo

The Houston’s First logo should be used in all internal and external communications. It should never be used in ways outside of what is shown in this visual identity guide.

Shown here is the full-color logo for Houston’s First. It is composed of the following elements:

The logomark (or just “mark”): The focus of the design is the cross which signifies the centrality of the Great Commission to the mission of Houston’s First. The three concentric circles of the logomark reflect the church’s vision of being a relevant, biblical, community and the mission of gathering in worship, growing in discipleship, and giving life away.

The logotype (or just “type”): “Houston’s First Baptist Church” spelled out in all caps.

THE LOGO:

Clearspace & Logo Size

Clearspace ensures our logo maintains its presence and is not overwhelmed by other visual elements. This spacing guarantees that the logo remains legible and instantly recognizable, preserving its visual impact.

The minimum clearspace: Always maintain a minimum clearspace around our logo. This clearspace, referred to as “x,” is equivalent to half the height/width of the logomark. Ensure no text, images, or other elements come within this designated space. As the logo scales in size, the clearspace should adjust proportionally.

The minimum logo size: When reproducing the logo, be conscious of its size and legibility. To ensure quality reproduction in print, the primary logo must appear no smaller than .3 in (7.62 mm) in height while the stacked logo should appear no smaller than .75 in (19.05 mm) in height.

Consider the file format: Please use the file format that is most suitable for the intended medium.

- Vector format (.ai, .eps file extensions)
 - For print graphics
 - Can be scaled up and down without losing image quality
- Raster format (.psd, .jpg, .png file extensions)
 - For Microsoft Office applications, the web, or videos
 - Can be scaled down, not scaled up.

THE LOGO:

Lockups

A lockup refers to the arrangement of the logo’s elements. Think of a lockup as the “official” ways the logo can appear.

Primary Lockup: The default representation of our logo is often the most recognizable version. Ideal for most applications unless space or layout demands a different lockup.

Stacked Lockup: In this version, logo elements are vertically aligned or “stacked” on top of each other. Suitable for spaces with a more vertical layout or when a more compact logo is needed.

Logomark (or “Mark”): This is our brand’s symbol or graphic representation removed from any text. Best for platforms or mediums where the brand is already well-established or where space is limited. Examples include app icons and merchandise like shirts or hats, etc.

Guidelines for using lockups:

Consistency is key: Always use the official lockups provided. Refrain from altering, rearranging, or creating new versions.

Consider the medium: Choose the lockup that best fits the platform or medium you’re working with. For example, a stacked lockup might work best for a brochure’s vertical space, while the primary lockup is ideal for a website header.

THE LOGO:

Color Variations

We provide different color variations to ensure our logo maintains its impact and clarity across various backgrounds and applications. Here’s a guide to understanding and using these variations:

Standard Logo: Our logo in its classic form, utilizing a deep, rich black. This version is versatile and suitable for white or light backgrounds, ensuring the logo remains prominent and legible.

White Logo: Our logo rendered entirely in white. This version is best used on dark or colored backgrounds where white provides the best contrast and clarity.

Guidelines for using color variations:

Context matters: Choose the logo color based on the background you will be using. Contrast is crucial for readability and recognition.

Stay true to the brand: Use only the provided color variations. Custom coloring or alterations can dilute brand consistency.

THE LOGO:

Logo Variations

Please use the campuswide Houston’s First logo (1) for printed or digital pieces that promote events and programs that affect or will be seen by members across all campuses.

The campus-specific Houston’s First logos (2–5) may be used to promote events and programs that are aimed at an individual campus.

THE LOGO:

Logo Use

Keep our logo clearly recognizable by using it properly and consistently. Here are several examples of incorrect logo use:

1. Do not stretch or warp the logo vertically.
2. Do not stretch or warp the logo horizontally.
3. Do not rearrange any of the logo components in ways outside of the standards given in this document.
4. Do not modify any lettering or typeface in the logotype.
5. Do not apply effects to the logo.
6. Do not recolor the logo.
7. Do not skew/slant the logo.
8. Do not place the color version on a complicated background or a background that reduces its legibility (in this scenario, use the white version of the logo and add a dark overlay to the photo).
9. Do not add any extra elements to the logo.

THE LOGO:

Logomark

The Houston’s First logomark can be added to a composition as a full circle or cropped in ways like the examples provided. Over a dark background, it can be used at 100% white or screened to 50%.

Whenever the logomark is used in place of the full church logo on printed collateral, it is required that the wording: “Houston’s First Baptist Church” be present somewhere on the piece.

BRAND COLORS:

Core Colors, Accent Colors & Tint Colors

The Houston’s First color palette has been selected to reflect the character of our church. Continual use of this color palette is an important part of buidling brand consistency with the logo and the overall identity.

The palette consists of the colors shown here: Slate, Navy, Sky, and Gray (core colors); Apricot and Kelly (accent colors). All brand colors need not be used on every piece.

- Guidelines for using brand colors:
 - Keep it simple: Brand colors should never be used for the Houston’s First logo which is to be displayed only in either black or white.
 - Core colors vs. accent colors: The overall look of designed pieces should utilize the core colors. In moderation, the accent colors can be used to draw attention to and highlight specific information of interest.
 - Expanded palette: Tints of any of these colors may be used additionally to create distinction in text and further range of the overall color palette.
